VI. FOR ALL WHO ARE EMPLOYED (IN ANY CAPACITY) OR IN A POST-DOC: (STUDENT OR UNEMPLOYED skip to question VII, VIII, or IX, as appropriate.)

VI A. How relevant is your PhD training to your work in your primary position?

- 1 Necessary: I could not do the work without it. (Note: this will probably be used by all teachers and researchers in academic institutions, but also by a chemist working in a commercial firm or an academic administrator running a laboratory or program close to the PhD).
- 2 The PhD skills are useful but not directly related to my work. (Example: an English PhD writing brochures, a chemistry PhD selling drugs, a PhD in any field teaching high school.)
- 3 PhD skills and training not relevant

VI B. How satisfied are you with your primary position?

- 1 It fulfills my hopes and expectation. It is where I want to be.
- 2 It is not exactly where I want to be, but I am satisfied with the results of my search.

- 3 I am disappointed in the results of my search.
- 4 I am sufficiently disappointed that I not only wish to change positions, but to change career paths as well.

VI C. If you have a temporary or an unsatisfactory position, or a post-doc: what type of job will you seek next?

- 1 Teaching/Research in Academe 4 Uncertain, plan to explore among the above options
- 2 Academic Administration 5 Other (Specify) _____
- 3 Nonacademic, in the Business, Government, or Nonprofit Sector

Those who are employed or who have post-docs may now go to question X.

VII. FOR STUDENTS

VII A. Is the studying you are doing a continuation or enhancement of your PhD studies, or is it a new field?

- 1 Continuation or enhancement of PhD studies. 3 A bit of each
- 2 A new field (Specify): _____

VII B. Do you consider your present circumstance (doing further study) freely chosen, or the result of the job market or some other constraint?

- 1 It is what I have freely chosen.
- 2 It is not what I would have chosen; it is the result of the job market.
- 3 It is not what I would have chosen; it is the result of some other constraint (for instance, need to train for a more lucrative field) (Specify) _____

You may now go to question X.

VIII. FOR THOSE NOT WORKING AND LOOKING FOR A JOB:

VIII A. What is the type of employment or post-doc you are seeking? (Check one. If more than one, check all that apply, and circle the one that is your first preference.)

- 1 Teaching/Research in Academe 4 Uncertain, plan to explore among the above options
- 2 Academic Administration 5 Other (Specify) _____
- 3 Nonacademic, in the Business, Government, or Nonprofit Sector

IX. FOR THOSE NOT WORKING AND NOT LOOKING FOR A JOB:

IX A. Do you consider your present circumstance freely chosen, or the result of the job market or some other constraint?

- 1 It is what I have chosen. 3 It is not what I would have chosen; it is the result of some other constraint.
- 2 It is not what I would have chosen; it is the result of the job market. (Specify) _____

X. FOR ALL RESPONDENTS: LOOKING BACK ON YOUR PHD TRAINING, HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT IT?

- 1 Would do the PhD over again, same field, same institution. 4 Am ambivalent about whether I made the right choice to pursue a PhD.
- 2 Would do the PhD again, same field, different institution. 5 Am sorry I made the choice to get a PhD.

3 Would do the PhD again, different field.

XI. CAREER ADVISING REQUEST:
