Step 1: SEAS diversity task force

• Convened to “examine current diversity ethos and suggest how we may improve it” and serve as conduit to University task force
Outcomes from SEAS diversity task force

• Recommendations for immediate action:
  • Include Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging as a School Goal
  • Dean's Online Video
  • Diversity and Women in Science Dialogues
  • Collaborate with Harvard University Native American Program
  • Review and Leverage Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health's Strategic D&I Plan
  • Develop and Disseminate Diversity, Inclusion and Belonging Databases/Sources
  • Hire Administrative Fellow to Develop Long-term Interventions → Alexis Stokes
  • Retain and Expand the Diversity, Inclusion, and Belonging Task Force
Step 2: Listening Tour (Alexis Stokes)

- 46 individual and group meetings
  - Faculty
  - Staff
  - Undergraduate Students
  - Graduate Students
  - Postdoc
- 8 events
- 17 existing reports
- Participants: Students (undergraduate and graduate); Faculty; Staff; Postdocs; Staff outside of SEAS
Outcomes from Listening Tour (Alexis Stokes)

• Recommendation for SEAS-wide climate survey (happened in April 2018)

• Themes of listening tour led to formation of subcommittees:
  • Recruitment and access
  • Retention and success
  • Community engagement
  • Assessment and tracking
  • Outreach to broader external community
Step 3: Strategic planning

- Each subcommittee prepares 2-3 strategic plans for initiatives to address core issues (Feb-Apr 2018)
- Strategic plans reviewed by entire standing committee (April 2018)
- Strategic plans revised to address comments (May 2018)
- Strategic plans reviewed by Dean (soon!)
- Implementation to begin in Fall 2018
